One Capital Management’s strategy blends active management of global large cap equities with exchange traded funds (ETFs) to construct global equity portfolios. One Capital Management utilizes ETFs as a means to access capital markets and asset classes that may enhance the return of portfolios and may reduce risk expressed in terms of return variability. One Capital Management believes that using asset classes that behave differently in the short-run and systematically rebalancing can enhance returns and reduce risk.

We charged One Capital Management to tailor each account to our client’s financial goals, risk-tolerance levels, tax status, spending needs and special situations. Their global investment strategies seek to position them to meet our clients’ preferences that vary along the risk-return spectrum.

From there, One Capital Management executes the investment strategy. CACM and One Capital Management continuously revisit this strategic plan over time.

Once CACM truly understands your objectives, we construct a capital forecast analysis to determine the appropriate means to help you. We study the impact of spending demands, capital markets returns, risk, time horizon and taxes on your wealth and objectives. We determine the investment return demands on your assets and marry it with your tolerance of variability in portfolio returns to form the core of the investment plan your investment policy statement.
CACM places fiduciary responsibility above all else.
